We also could not have made this non-profit work without the generous support of all those who donated or purchased art (or BOTH) in our fundraisers over the last 8 years.
The quality of art collections all over the city has improved thanks to your excellent ideas and innovative creations! THANK YOU!

The Gallery will change its name to Axiom and will be run by a new artist team, with the same exciting and inviting attitude that made Green Street famous!

Green Street continues its commitment to bringing high quality accessible, experimental art putting to street level by bringing Axiom to our subway location. After a short installation period the gallery will reopen as Axiom inside the same great location! These artists feature new media and were awarded the Weekly Dig’s “ Best Art Gallery” for 2006 - so check out the new kids on the block January 12th. Visit Axiom at their web site
